

Chronic Audacity Tour Launches in Aiken, SC — A Transformative Experience for the Autoimmune & Chronic Illness Community

Aiken, SC — May 30, 2026 — A powerful new movement is coming to the CSRA. Chronic Audacity, a dynamic event experience created for individuals living with autoimmune and chronic illnesses, will officially launch its multi-city tour in Aiken, South Carolina.

Presented by Stay Low Initiative, Inc., in partnership with Love With Action, this impactful event is designed to empower, connect, and uplift individuals and families navigating life-altering health conditions.

The inaugural event will take place on Saturday, May 30, 2026, at Millbrook Baptist Church, located at 217 S. Aiken Blvd, Aiken, SC.

Chronic Audacity is more than an event — it's a bold call to community. Attendees will experience a carefully curated environment featuring:

- Social networking and peer support
- Health and wellness resources
- Access to patient advocates and professionals
- Community organizations and service providers
- Live programming and meaningful conversations
- Giveaways and interactive experiences

This event is free and open to the public, but registration is required.

As part of the launch, a special gift will be provided to the first 25 individuals living with autoimmune or chronic illness who both register in advance and attend within the first hour of the event.

“Chronic Audacity was created to give people a space where they feel seen, supported, and strengthened,” said founder Deanna Butler Gayle. “We’re building a community that doesn’t just cope - we connect, advocate, and thrive together.”

Following its Aiken debut, the Chronic Audacity experience will expand to additional cities, continuing its mission to bring resources, awareness, and empowerment to communities nationwide.
